OLD TESTAMENT READING: Isaiah 9:2-7

²The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shined. ³You have multiplied the nation; you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as they are glad when they divide the spoil. ⁴For the yoke of his burden, and the staff for his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. ⁵For every boot of the tramping warrior in battle tumult and every garment rolled in blood will be burned as fuel for the fire. ⁶For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. ⁷Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, on the throne of David and over his kingdom, to establish it and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time forth and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

R: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

HYMN: “Hark! The Herald Angels Sing” LSB #380, 1-3

Peace on earth, and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled.” Joyful all ye nations, rise, Join the triumph of the skies; With the angelic host proclaim, “Christ is born in Bethlehem!” Hark! The herald angels sing, “Glory to the newborn King!”
- 2. Christ, by highest heaven adored; Christ, the everlasting Lord; Late in time behold Him come, Offspring of a virgin’s womb. Veiled in flesh the Godhead see; Hail the incarnate Deity! Pleased as man with men to dwell, Jesus our Immanuel! Hark! The herald angels sing, “Glory to the newborn King!”
- 3. Hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace! Hail, the Sun of Righteousness! Light and life to all He brings, Risen with healing in His wings, Mild He lays His glory by, Born that man no more may die, Born to raise the sons of earth,

Born to give them second birth. Hark! The herald angels sing, “Glory to the newborn King!

Wie uns die Alten sungen, von Jesse kam die Art,
Und hat ein Blümlein bracht, mitten im kalten Winter,
wohl zu der halben Nacht.
 2. Das Röslein, das ich meine, davon Jesaias sagt,
Hat uns gebracht alleine Marie, die reine Magd.
Aus Gottes ewgem Rat hat sie ein Kind geboren,
wohl zu der halben Nacht.
- 1 Lo, how a rose e’er blooming rom tender stem hath sprung! Of Jesse’s lineage coming As prophets long have sung, It came, a flow’ret bright, Amid the cold of winter, When half-spent was the night.

2 Isaiah 'twas foretold it, The rose I have in mind;
With Mary we behold it, The virgin mother kind.
To show God's love aright, She bore to us a Savior,
When half-spent was the night.

PLEASE RISE FOR THE READING OF THE HOLY GOSPEL

HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 2:1–12

The Birth of Jesus Christ

P The Holy Gospel according to Luke the 2nd Chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

¹In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered. ²This was the first registration when Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³And all went to be registered, each to his own town. ⁴And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the town of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, ⁵to be registered with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child. ⁶And while they were there, the time came for her to give birth. ⁷And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in swaddling cloths and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

The Shepherds and the Angels

⁸And in the same region there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. ⁹And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with fear. ¹⁰And the angel said to them, "Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy that will be for all the people. ¹¹For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. ¹²And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger."

P: This is the Gospel of our Lord.

C: Praise to You, O Christ.

APOSTLE'S CREED

All: I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life † everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH

P: Brothers and sisters in Christ, this day we celebrate the gift of life, born in Bethlehem to be our Savior. Since, as His redeemed children, we have the command and invitation to do so, let us now bring our prayers and our petitions before the throne of grace, praising God and saying:

C: Glory to God in the highest!

P: From the very beginning of time, God has given the command to be fruitful and multiply. He has blessed and sanctified families throughout history, most significantly through the birth of the Christ Child. May God continue to bless all the families represented here; may each relationship be strengthened or restored; may the Almighty Father protect and keep each family, providing for all of their needs through His riches in Christ Jesus, so that together they can all rejoice in His goodness, praising God and saying:

C: Glory to God in the highest!

P: God Himself also provides for the needs of people by means beyond the family by providing us with good civic leaders and servants — mayors and councils, emergency workers and health-care providers. Let us thank God for them and ask Him to keep them in His care especially our President, Vice President, as well as those who serve in the armed forces, as well as those who serve in our local Police, Fire and EMT and other emergency services, praising God and saying:

C: Glory to God in the highest!

P: Even on this blessed day, as we are surrounded by so many of our fellow believers, we are reminded of so many others who are not here. We pray for those who have wandered from the faith. God grant that they hear the Savior's call, wherever they are. Bring them back into fellowship with us here, that together we can worship the newborn King, praising God and saying:

C: Glory to God in the highest!

P: Father, You also care for the lonely and the destitute. Guide us, as Your children and Your servants, to reach out to those who are alone in this otherwise festive time of year. Help us find them and include them, reflecting the love You have shown to us, so that they truly have a reason to join us in praising God and saying:

C: Glory to God in the highest!

P: Bless the sick and the shut-ins of our congregation (Especially remembering this day _____). Lord, let them feel Your loving, healing presence; be their rock and their refuge in every trouble. Feeble voiced or strong, You love them, and with the Church on earth and the hosts of heaven, they can join in praising God and saying:

C: Glory to God in the highest!

P: Receive our prayers and our praise, Lord God Almighty, for You live and reign forever: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

P: Lord, remember us in Your kingdom and teach us to pray:

C: Our Father who art in Heaven, Hallowed by Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

SPECIAL MUSIC: "O Holy Night" -The Choir & Donna Evans

The Service of Light

THE PASSING OF THE LIGHT OF CHRIST

At the Beginning of the Service of Light the Sanctuary will be darkened as we focus in on the light of Christ.

P: Darkness in 1st century Israel was something they believed had to be overcome; and for them it wasn't easy: the few torches and candles they had didn't go far to illuminate their nights. Now, for us it's as simple as "let there be light." Nobody is going to drive home this evening without their path being illuminated, and as you head out after church most of the homes you pass will be bright with Christmas lights. But there is a lot of darkness in our world: spiritual darkness, moral darkness, ethical darkness. The scope of the darkness around us is almost impossible to comprehend. We are living in a world of darkness, on a “cold winter’s night that was so deep.” Friends in Christ, the world needs LIGHT. I need light. You need light. And we know people, lots of people who need light as well. For this reason, LIGHT has come into the world, and that is why we are here this evening: because Christ IS the Light who has come into the world, a light that shines into every nook and cranny of creation and onto every human created in the image of God! Tonight, it all begins with one light, the Christ Candle, that candle that symbolizes the end of the waiting and the celebration of Christ’s coming. That one light will become two, then four, then eight, then sixteen and on and on until the entire church is glowing with the light of Christ.

(At this time, everyone is invited to “light: their candle and sing.)

HYMN: “Silent Night” LSB #363, St. 1-3

- 1 Silent night, holy night! All is calm, all is bright Round yon virgin mother and child. Holy Infant, so tender and mild, Sleep in heavenly peace, Sleep in heavenly peace.
- 2 Silent night, holy night! Shepherds quake at the sight;
Glories stream from heaven afar, Heav’nly hosts sing, Alleluia! Christ, the Savior, is born! Christ, the Savior, is born!

3 Silent night, holy night! Son of God, love's pure light Radiant beams from Thy holy face With the dawn of redeeming grace, Jesus, Lord, at Thy birth, Jesus, Lord, at Thy birth.

P: O God, You make us glad with the yearly remembrance of the birth of Your only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ. Grant that as we would joyfully receive Him as our redeemer, so that we may with sure confidence behold Him when He comes to Judge the living and the dead; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God now and forever.

C: Amen.

BLESSING

P: May the Lord bless you and keep you, may the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you. May the Lord look upon you with favor and grant you ✕ His peace.

C: Amen.

As "Joy to the World" begins, the lights in the sanctuary come shining back on as we remember that the light of Christ scatters all Darkness and brings HOPE, LOVE, PEACE, and JOY.

HYMN: "Joy To The World" LSB #387, St. 1-4

- 1. Joy to the world! the Lord is come; Let earth receive her King; Let ev'ry heart prepare Him room, And heav'n and nature sing, And heav'n and nature sing, And heav'n, and heav'n and nature sing.

- 2. Joy to the earth! the Savior reigns; Let men their songs employ; While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains Repeat the sounding joy, Repeat the sounding joy, Repeat, repeat the sounding joy.
- 3. No more let sins and sorrows grow, Nor thorns infest the ground; He comes to make His blessings flow Far as the curse is found, Far as the curse is found, Far as, far as the curse is found.
- 4. He rules the world with truth and grace, And makes the nations prove The glories of His righteousness, And wonders of His love, And wonders of His love, And wonders, and wonders of His love.

SENDING

P: Fear not, for behold, I bring good news of great joy. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, Christ the Lord.

C: “Let us go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened”

P: Go in peace, share the good news!
