Music Notes-November 2022
By Ellen Brown, Dir. of Music

Our Hymn of the Month for November, 2022, is titled "Be Exalted, O God," by Brent Chambers

Here we are in one of the most interesting and fun (musically speaking) seasons of the church year. There are so many wonderful pieces of music celebrating All Saints Day, Thanksgiving, Advent, Christmas and Epiphany! If there's piece of music which has a special meaning for you, one which you'd like to hear, or perhaps be a part of performing yourself, please let me know so that it can be included in our GLORIA Team planning, Mon. November 14th.

Meanwhile, here's some info on our Hymn of the Month for November: "Be Exalted, O God," by Brent Chambers.
CCLI song#21112, with words and music by Brent Chambers, © 1977 by Universal Music/ Brentwood-Benson Publishing, used by permission under our CCLI License #21038571.

This song is shorter than the ones we've introduced recently, in that it has only one verse followed by a chorus. Built on the 5th verse of Psalm 57, it is a song of praise, appropriate to all for which we give thanks in November. But the Psalm as a whole, deals with David's plea for mercy, when he's hiding in a cave, being pursued by King Saul and his men. In the first 4 verses of the Psalm, he cites all the imminent dangers which he is facing, then suddenly in verse 5, David breaks into praise and thanksgiving to God for saving him thus far. In verses 8 and 9, he's even singing and praising with instruments!
What amazing FAITH! What amazing HOPE!

Brent Chambers breathes these emotions into his music, with a steady 4/4 time beat, in the Key of A Major, and standard chord progressions supporting the opening words of the verse: "I will give thanks to Thee, O Lord, I will sing praises to Thee among the nations;" and later the Chorus: "Be exalted, O God, above the heavens. Let Thy glory be over all the earth."

About the Composer:

Brent Chambers was born in 1948 in Napier, New Zealand. He was converted to Christianity at the age of 18 at a Youth for Christ meeting. After graduating high school, he studied at the Bible College of New Zealand, Aukland University, taking an LTh degree (Licentiate in Theology, equivalent to the final year of the Bachelor's Degree for Graduate Ordinands.)
Along the way in career, he has managed to compose over 500 songs and humorously describes himself as "mad on music," working as a full-time songwriter who repaints houses for a living. He is Director of Music at Eaglewing Music Co. in Bay of Plenty, New Zealand, has recorded and self-published 3 albums, and has traveled as a Worship Leader with David and Dale Garrett. In addition to "Be Exalted, O God" you may be familiar with two of his other songs: "I Will Give Thanks to You;" and, "In the Presence of Your People."

You may enjoy listening and singing along at the link below:
https://youtu.be/XYSyt6uOGyA
We hope you'll find David's spirit of exultation in the November Hymn-of-the-Month, and look to more wonderful music in Dec.

Beautiful Savior hosts 2nd Annual Fall Festival:

On Saturday, October 29th, Beautiful Savior hosted our 2nd annual fall festival from 4:30-6:30pm. All in all, sixty neighbors, friends, and church members attended the Fall Fest as cars and trucks were decorated. Members and friends then distributed candy and gifts to our guests as festival goers enjoyed games and prizes. We also had Pumpkin Painting, and for the first time, face painting, hayrides and a Food Truck. Many of the children who attended were in costume and so were several of our adults! We also turned the lights on in the patio as the recent addition of fans and extra lighting to the provided a comfortable feeling as the late afternoon darkened. We are so thankful to our Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church volunteers who decorated their vehicles, gave out candy, lead games and handed out prizes, candy and pumpkins. Thank you for welcoming all our visitors! It was truly a great night to trust in Jesus and experience not just the sweetness of candy, but the sweetness of the Gospel too.

Annual Southwick Memorial Fish Fry hosted once again at Beautiful Savior.

The Southwick Family Memorial Fish Fry was held Saturday, Oct 15th with a team led by the Elders as Fresh Pacific cod was flown in and deep fried in our Elders secret recipe batter. Side dishes of potato salad, coleslaw, cornbread muffins, and desserts were provided by congregation members. Music was provided by Glenn Brown and his Ambassadors of Jazz. Even as they sky opened up and rain began to fall, Attendees still enjoyed their meals in the Fellowship Hall and on the outdoor patio. Nearly 100 dinners were served and over $2400 was raised! Attendees included ASU students, La Mesa volunteers, members from Hosanna, Mountain View, Gethsemane, as well as friends and family of Beautiful Savior members as well. We thank God for blessing this event and we thank our volunteers for their donations and for putting it all together!!

La Mesa Tempe Update

What God Can Do When We Work Together!

Rick McClellan, director of La Mesa wanted to share with us a Recent ministry win that happened a few weeks ago here at Beautiful Savior. He writes…

"We thank our Lord Jesus Christ for the partnership we have with Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church in Tempe. Jesus told us in in Luke 10 :2 "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field. Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church has answered the call and have already made an impact on the community and the harvest. That's what led to us meeting Conrad a few weeks ago. Conrad heard about a free meal in Tempe, and he happened to be in the area on Thursday afternoon. He felt like Jesus was directing him to the church and as he was struggling with his addiction, he had been praying for help. He immediately felt welcomed, and something felt different when he arrived, yet he wasn't really sure what it was as he had been to food kitchens before. Yet, he never felt like this. He started talking with Laurie from La Mesa Ministries about his addiction and she in turn reached out to the Resource Center team. The team spent some time hearing about his struggles and learned that he needed freedom from his addiction. We prayed with him and explained there was help available and that he would need to return tomorrow to the church at 10am. This was Conrad's first test to see how serious he was. Conrad made it back the next morning and we began the process. We got him away from his environment by putting him in a hotel for the weekend where he could complete the application process and medical testing. We had our doubts about Conrad's sincerity and commitment, but it wasn't our place to judge. We didn't know if Conrad was ready to commit to fifteen months of transformation at Teen Challenge. Now, for those who don't know, Teen Challenge is not a typical addiction recovery program. They assist in laying out the process of receiving a new life in Christ through a total transformation. A bi-product of this new transformation in Christ is the freedom from addiction. On Monday morning we picked up Conrad and took him to the Teen Challenge facility in downtown Phoenix. He has been there now for a couple of weeks, and is doing really well and making friends. Changes are happening and we were told by the Teen Challenge staff that the Spirit of the Lord is working on his heart. Conrad wouldn't have had an opportunity to begin a new relationship with Jesus and to find relief from his addiction if it wasn't for the partnership of Beautiful Savior and the workers of the harvest. Hope, Happens, Here!"

There is a blue plastic box in the second Sunday school room that you can put any cartridges you want to donate. The funds from these recycled cartridges go into the general fund. Thanks for donating to this cause

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Darlene and Phyllis met with Pastor Tim on Sunday September 11. Gladys and Natalia were excused. Darlene volunteered to be the Chairperson and Phyllis will be secretary. We weren't clear on what our duties as a Board would be since we do not have a Sunday School at this time. Pastor explained that he would like to have a plan ready in case we do have children attending the service; such as having a teacher ready to step in and at least five lessons ready.

We also discussed VBS 2023 and will start making plans at our November meeting.

Our next meeting will be Sunday October 9. Anyone wishing to be part of this exciting Board please let Darlene or Phyllis know, we would love to have your ideas.

BEAUTIFUL SAVIOR LUTHERAN WOMEN'S MISSIONARY LEAGUE
(Also known as WOMEN IN MISSION!)

LWML 80 DAYS OF PRAYER AND SERVICE

LWML is celebrating 80 years of ministry and service and has asked each member, group, zone or district to reflect God's love by blessing others with 80 of "something" to carry forth the LWML Mission. Beautiful Savior Women in Mission are doing an 80-day Calendar of Prayers and Activities and we encourage you to join in this endeavor. Our October Calendar and first 31 days begin on the other side.

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) is an official auxiliary of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. Since 1942, the LWML has focused on affirming each woman's relationship with Christ, encouraging and equipping women to live out their Christian lives in active mission ministries and to support global missions.

MISSION STATEMENT: As Lutheran Women in Mission,
We joyfully proclaim Christ, support missions,
And equip women to honor God by serving others.

Monday of each week begins with a Bible Passage. The month of October begins with the verses including the LWML motto: "Serve the Lord with gladness." Psalm 100:2.

We are including prayers for the Gospel Outreach Mission Grants for 2022-2024 for the LWML Pacific Southwest District. The total for these grants is $153,839 and the moneys collected in the MITE boxes go to these ministries. Mite Box offerings support District (75%) and National (25%) mission grants, as well as finance the operations of the LWML.

In honor of the 80th LWML Anniversary, pray that BSLC members may reach out to invite 80 guests to join us at worship by the end of this year.

Pastor Tim Anderson

Have you ever skipped ahead in a book? Have you ever found yourself desperate to know where you are going in a story before you get there. Heck, sometimes I do that when I'm not reading a story. I obsess over a route before getting into the car to travel because I want to know the way, I want to be on the lookout for the signs that tell me my turn is coming up, or that we are about to see or experience something cool. Just a few weeks ago, I had the chance to go for a drive up to Northern AZ, further up than I had been, past Payson, Page, and Strawberry, up onto Lake Mary Rd to a town called Mormon Lake where I would officiate a renewal of vows ceremony for Connor and Hannah, two of our members here at Beautiful Savior. You can ask my wife, I spent hours the night before on my phone, checking google maps trying to decide which route to take up there and which route to take, before settling on the scenic route through Payson. While I felt good about my route, my map didn't really tell me everything I would see along the way. It didn't tell me that a quick 15-minute trip to McDonald's in Payson would turn into an hour-long ordeal as we would be stuck behind an entire soccer team ordering happy meal after happy meal. My map also didn't tell me that we would see Elk walking around the village of Strawberry as we came back to Phoenix. I was blown away and only wish that I had grabbed my camera. I knew my destination; I didn't always know what would happen between where I was and when I would arrive there.

Strangely, I feel like that's a great metaphor for the month of November in the Church, we know where we are going, we know the destination, in face we know a lot about the destination, but we don't always know what will happen to us between where we are now and when we arrive in that place. What we do know, is that this is a month to be thankful, to be thankful to God for bringing us all this far, as we look out the rear view mirror we can see the journey each of us has taken so far, the places we have stopped along the way, the flat tires and oil changes, and cracked windshield and other drivers we have had to navigate and overcome to get to where we are at today, but we also hear again and again, especially this month where we are going. Where we have always been going. Home.

This Month begins with our celebration of All Saints Day. While the official church holiday falls on Nov. 1st, we are going to celebrate All Saints on Nov. 6th. But All Saints Day sets our destination this month. We set our eyes on THE END. The end of the story for us as Christian people. That day when,

A great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, clothed in white robes, and from where have they come?" I said to him, "Sir, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. "Therefore, they are before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will shelter them with his presence. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat. For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

A day is coming when pain and longing and grief and arthritis and anxiety and warfare and pandemic and anger and strife and weariness and everything that marks our road in this life will be behind us, in the rearview mirror. We are not there yet, but we are heading there, it is our destination.

So that's where November begins, and November Ends in Advent, in the return of the story that shapes and changes our story forever. On Nov. 27th, we will again begin to hear about how John the Baptist prepares the way for Jesus, how angels announce a miraculous birth to a virgin and also to the man to whom she's betrothed. We will begin again the road to Bethlehem as we remember the Christ child born for us on Christmas night and the moment that "re-calculated" humanity forever. You see every time I take a wrong turn, that's what my GPS screams at me… RECALCULATING!!! In Christ, humanity is recalculated in its journey back to a relationship with God, forever. He even changes our destination to that place, where we will be with him, clothed in his righteousness…Forever!!!

Along the way, we are thankful, and not just for the Turkey on Nov. 24th. We are thankful for who we are called to be in this season, as the church, as those who know that moment that recalibrated and recalculated our life and our reality as well as those who know where we are going, and the day when we celebrate with all the saints our God who has saved, is saving us, and will someday save us. As we celebrate, we do our best to expect to see the unexpected and we deal together with what comes. We journey as one, stopping for gas, paying to fill up the tank when needed, checking tire pressure, getting oil changes and managing the journey in this season, so that others can one day continue to drive towards our final destination. In this season, as we journey together, we celebrate what God shows us, as he shows up each day in new and unexpected ways, we mourn together when one of us seemingly gets a flat tire, stumbles or falls, and we work together to put this church in the best position to be driven towards the final day of this life and the first day of the life to come for all the generations between now and the end of the age. We support the ministry and do what it takes to pass this car down to the next generation as we wait for the day when we arrive at the place Jesus already has told us how to get to.

Let's be thankful for the end, but enjoy the ride in the meantime, you never know what God might show you!

Pastor Tim
